Site Updates as of April 16, 2018

General bored piling works and pile hacking have been completed for Monaco, the first of three launched residential towers in Azure North. Works have progressed to concrete pouring for the mat foundation or column footings, on which the columns for the building will be installed.

Bored piling works for Bali, the second tower, are ongoing.

By the end of the year, construction works target to reach 15 floors for Monaco and 10 floors for Bali.
